Sarah Marchant

Chief Operating Officer & SVP of ROC-NH

Sarah Marchant is the Chief Operating Officer and SVP of the ROC-NH Program at the New Hampshire Community Loan Fund. She leads the Resident Owned Communities (ROC) NH team and the organization's energy solutions work, including helping resident-owned manufactured-home communities become more resilient by accessing modern energy options. She is responsible for business management, operations, executive communications, and cross-organizational strategic initiatives.

Marchant is a leading voice in New Hampshire and among urban planners nationally on the nexus of community development, affordable homeownership, and energy. In 2022, Sarah was elected to the American Planning Association's AICP Commission for Region 1, currently serving as Secretary-Treasurer. She served as President of the Northern New England Chapter of the American Planning Association (NNECAPA) from 2015 to 2021. In 2019, Sarah was appointed to the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority (NHHFA) Board of Directors, now serving as Vice Chair and in 2023 Sarah was appointed to the ROC USA Board of Directors as Secretary.

Previously, she served the City of Nashua from 2014-2021 as the Director of Community Development, where she developed the city's affordable housing strategy and led over 70 team members across six departments: Building Safety; Code Enforcement; Planning and Zoning; Waterways and Hydroelectric Facilities; Nashua Transit System; Urban Programs; and various boards, and programs.

Sarah holds a B.A. from the University of New Hampshire and an M.A. from the University of Connecticut. She lives in Brookline, NH with her husband and two children.
